

Read

the novel you've had for a month. Without TV or a ringing telephone the rest of the world just slips away.

walk

the trails to a beach you can call your own for the day.

immerse

yourself in the rustic charm of a 50's cabin – or the soothing jets of a lavish hot tub. Some of our guests have been coming back since we opened in 1952.

experience

a few days of complete thoughts and finished sentences. We'll come by daily with fresh towels and firewood, but you don't need to see another soul.

what your friends are doing at work!

to the surf lapping the beach while you stoke the fire.

a gourmet dinner or take in the panorama over an afternoon tea.

write

a letter to an old friend. It's amazing where your thoughts wander when you let them.

watching children create architectural wonders in the sand, exploring tide pools and beach combing. Toys without batteries!

how great it would be to come and do it all! Pick up the phone and give us a call.

Point-No-Point is located on the rugged Southwest coast of Vancouver Island, a scenic 40 mile (64 km) drive west of Victoria along Highway 14, about 25 km past the community of Sooke.

Join us for delicious west coast cuisine – lunch, dinner or afternoon tea. Your table overlooks the Strait of Juan de Fuca, and to the west... the Pacific Ocean. The snow capped Olympic mountains across the water complete a view that's hard to beat!

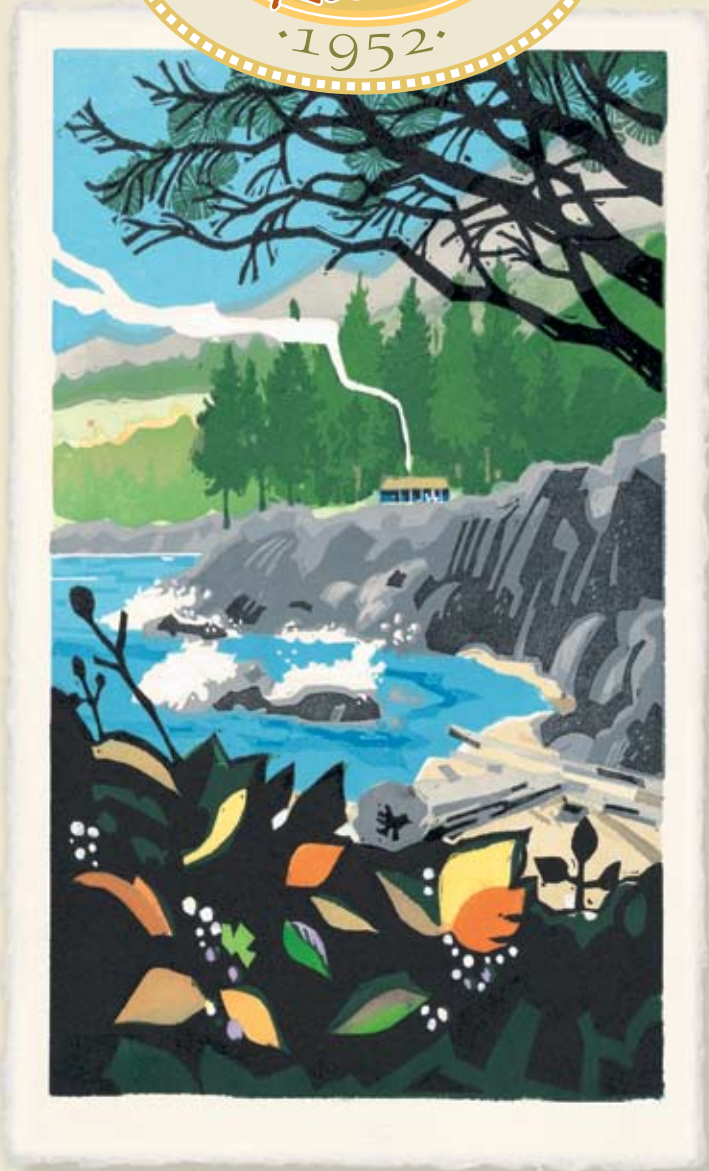

Come and be our guest.
